

2:05 14 IS THE TIME

The World's Trotting Record Lowered to This

BY GAMY LITTLE NANCY HANKS

On the Kin-Shaped Track at Independence, Iowa, With Apparatus.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Aug. 31.—Nancy Hanks today dipped two seconds from the world's trotting record made by herself in Chicago three weeks ago and made the circuit of the Independence famous kin-shaped track in 2:05. All the conditions were favorable for a record-breaking mile and Nancy proved herself fully equal to the occasion. At 2:30 o'clock Nancy Hanks was brought out for a warming-up mile. When she first appeared on the turf, with her great driver, Dobie, in the sulky, cheers greeted the pair and eager eyes followed her line of mule. At 4 o'clock she again appeared and the scene was repeated.

Her perfect form, perfect action and the perfect day made everything seem favorable. Promptly at 4:05 the great horse appeared for the trial. Dobie donned his driving cap and the announcement was made that Nancy Hanks, holding the world's record of 2:07, was ready to start. Two promoters appeared on the loop to help her along with the sound of their hoof beats in the great race. On the second score, Dobie's head gave a quick, decisive nod, the word was given and a hundred watches were started to mark the seconds until she should appear under the home wire.

Two Macemakers. Lincoln, who went the mile with her in Chicago in 2:07, piloted by FRANK STARR, took the place next to the mare and Williams driving his runner, Ned Gordon, went to the outside prepared to come upon the home stretch. With her smooth, easy, perfect and matchless gait, Nancy Hanks trotted the quarter in 30 seconds. The half she turned in 1:01 without a misstep. Then began her grand race for home. Without a wobble and with perfect swing, she shot past the third quarter pole in 1:34. Here Williams came up with his runner and Dobie loosened the mare's head.

The crowd in awe. He encouraged her by his voice and a gentle use of the whip, and without a falter she kept under the wire in 2:05. For one long minute breathless silence reigned. Every one was consulting his watch and the figures at which the hands had stopped held the crowd in awe. Then, awake to the fact that all records had been broken, the great assemblage burst into cheers loud and long as the queen of all trotters was driven back to the stand.

Acknowledged the honors. Dobie gracefully lifted his hat in recognition of the cheers showered upon him. He was lifted from his sulky by the enthusiastic crowd and men fought like maniacs in the scramble to grasp the successful driver's hand and shower congratulations upon him. Others ran up and carried the mare as she was being unblanketed and led from the track.

The races pulled for today were 220 yards, $5,000 stakes, and the 240 yards, $5,000 stakes. Flying Jib captured the $5,000 stake on the third race. The $1,000 stake was taken by Clara D. after Frank Quirk had won the first two heats. Summary:
